The scheme for surrender-cum-rehabilitation of militants in the North East including Assam is applicable to those militants who have surrendered/surrender after 1.4.1998. The Government of India provides 100% reimbursement for expenditure incurred on the rehabilitation of surrenderees. Benefits under scheme are as follows:

(i) Persons eligible under the scheme will be initially lodged in a Rehabilitation camps where they will be imparted training in a trade/vocation of their liking or benefitting their aptitude.

(ii) They are paid a monthly stipend for a period of 12 months. The stipend in respect of a surrenderee does not exceed Rs. 2000- per month. The scale of stipend for various categories of surrenderees is decided by the State Government in consultation with the Government of India.

(iii) Board and lodging at the Rehabilitation Camp is free.

The scheme envisages only assistance for self-employment training and the surrendered militants are to apply for self-employment schemes as per normal rules applicable.

The Government of Assam reported that sincere efforts have been made to rehabilitate the surrendered militants. Surrendered militants have been encouraged to engage themselves in activities relating to the agricultural sector by forming cooperatives. The Government of Assam has also identified a large chunk of Government land for allotting the same to the cooperatives formed by the surrendered militants. Total 1213 Bighas of land has already been allotted to the Cooperative formed by such surrenderees. 61 cooperatives have been formed by the surrendered militants and some of the cooperatives have been formed by the surrendered militants and some of the cooperatives have already started gainful production.

Some of the surrendered militants have also started small-scale industries like carpentry, iron-fabricating etc. and some others have started small fishery, piggery and poultry farms.
